

We are looking for Sponsorships to take this year's Diocese of Charleston's Belonging Conference for Women to a new level. We will have 500 Catholic women from all over the state of South Carolina in attendance. Can this audience help your business or ministry?

Please help us make this the best conference yet while keeping the price reasonable for all women to attend. For more information about this year's conference and speakers, go here.

Attention Vendors! Do you have a ministry, craft, or business that would be of interest to the women in our Diocese? We can help you spread the word. Cost for a vendor space is only $40 for ministry, $50 non-ministry. You must bring your own table and chairs. This includes a box lunch. For more information
